Pursuant to Section 5600.4 of the Business and Professions Code, Chapter 3, Division 3:

- (a) The board shall issue, upon application and payment of the fee fixed by this chapter, a retired license to an architect who holds a license that is current and active or capable of being renewed pursuant to Section 5600.2 and whose license is not suspended, revoked or otherwise punitively restricted by the board or subject to disciplinary action under this chapter.
- (b) The holder of a retired license issued pursuant to this section shall not engage in any activity for which an active architect's license is required. An architect holding a retired license shall be permitted to use the title "architect retired" or "retired architect."
- (c) The holder of a retired license shall not be required to renew that license.
- (d) In order for the holder of a retired license issued pursuant to this section to restore his or her license to active status, the holder of a retired license shall comply with Section 5600.3.

To apply for a retired license, please complete this application, attach a money order or certified, cashier's, or personal check in the amount of $200 made payable to the CALIFORNIA ARCHITECTS BOARD, and mail both to 400 R Street, Suite 4000, Sacramento, CA 95814. DO NOT SEND CASH. For more information, see the reverse side of this application.

IMPORTANT PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

Pursuant to Section 5600.3 of the Business and Professions Code, “a license which is not renewed within five years after its expiration may not be renewed, restored, reissued, or reinstated thereafter. The holder of the expired license may apply for and obtain a new license only if he or she pays all of the fees, and meets all of the requirements set forth in this chapter for obtaining an original license...”

Your architect license must be renewed and kept in good standing for you to practice architecture in the State of California. The practice of architecture by any individual whose license is not current and in good standing, for any reason, is punishable as a misdemeanor under Sections 5536 and 5536.1 of the Business and Professions Code.

RETIRED LICENSE - - Effective January 1, 1993, Section 5600.4 of the Business and Professions Code, Chapter 3, Division 3, states:

- (a) The board shall issue, upon application and payment of the fee fixed by this chapter, a retired license to an architect who holds a license that is current and active or capable of being renewed pursuant to Section 5600.2 and whose license is not suspended, revoked, or otherwise punitively restricted by the board or subject to disciplinary action under this chapter.
- (b) The holder of a retired license issued pursuant to this section shall not engage in any activity for which an active architect's license is required. An architect holding a retired license shall be permitted to use the title “architect retired” or “retired architect.”
- (c) The holder of a retired license shall not be required to renew that license.
- (d) In order for the holder of a retired license issued pursuant to this section to restore his or her license to active status, the holder of a retired license shall comply with Section 5600.3.
